We Sing of Our World (Catholic)

FIRST QUARTER

Weeks One to Nine

SINGING ASSIGNMENTS:

You can check off work
as you complete it!

Look through the songbook We Sing of Our World. Note on the title page the names of the authors. Note the dedication to the King of the Universe and the Table of Contents arranged according to the liturgical year. ☐

Skim through the pages and notice the illustrations, the religious songs, the Gregorian chant, Latin hymns, and quotes from the Bible. In the back of the book, you will find a Glossary of Musical Terms, a keynote page, and aids to musical notation. ☐

In this first quarter, sing the After Pentecost songs. ☐

Memorize "Down in Adoration Falling." ☐

You may want to sing some other songs; look for songbooks at your local library or bookstore. With your parent's permission, check the Internet for good music books. If you have a piano, a keyboard, or some other musical instrument, use it to help you stay on key. ☐

OPTIONAL READING ASSIGNMENTS:

During this quarter, read some books on a musical topic of your choice. Look in the music section of your library, especially in the Children's section or in the Young Adult section. These sections usually have books with good explanations and illustrations. Some topics to consider are musical instruments, classical music, folk music, opera, ballet. ☐

Parent-Teacher:

Please send to Seton the First Quarter Report Form with your child's quarter grade recorded. You may choose to record your child's grade online from your MySeton page. ☐
